ED/Superintendent Update

Karen Francois, Managing Director of Curriculum and Instruction, discussed recent English language arts interim assessment data. The board discussed growth areas and the role digitally tools played in implementing the assessment.

Carrie Mauer & Christina Froeb then shared an update on COVID-19, including the network's decision to continue with fully remote instruction following winter break. The board discussed how the schools might use the buildings differently if continuing to stay fully remote for an extended period of time. Testing was also discussed as a feature of the return to in-person instruction policy.

Christina Froeb shared an update on the strategic plan, #ReimagineExpore2021, including progress made with established committees and the plans for launching committees for the remaining strands. The board discussed the impact of COVID-19 on the plan as well as the role the board could play in supporting the strands.

Board Subcommittee & Membership Updates

Board DEI & Membership Subcommittee provided an update on various strands of work, including looking at board policies through an equity lens, evaluating the process for recruiting members, and engaging the board in anti-white supremacy work. The board discussed new timeline for expanding the board and what skills to prioritize with new members.
